

Amendments to the Specification:

Please amend the following paragraph beginning at page 20, line 5 as follows:

5       The first application customizes access to the project Vote Smart website (<http://www.vote-smart.org>), an independent resource for information about United States governmental officials. The site caters to people interested in politicians' backgrounds, committee memberships, and positions on major political issues. While Project Vote Smart reports on state and local governments as well as the federal government, the focus was ~~on only on~~ limited to the congressional subsection of the site 10 of the experiments.
